Item Title: Presentation of Employee of the Quarter Certificates to Marjorie Camacho and Robyn Mobley
Date: May 21, 2025
Department: Human Resources

Background:

As part of Nassau County's Employee Recognition Program, during the months of January, February, and March, Human Resources received 8 submissions from employees, nominating their co-workers for Employee of the Quarter.

Among these nominations were:

- Colby Barcous – Contracts Coordinator
- Amy Bell – Sr. Management Analyst
- Marjorie Camacho – Code Enforcement Officer
- Joshua Fitchett – Engineer – Fire Rescue
- Jamie Graf – Lieutenant– Fire Rescue
- Michael Powell – Engineer – Fire Rescue
- Robyn Mobley – Human Resources Specialist
- Frederick “Nat” Russell – Traffic Sign Technician Lead

After careful review and consideration, and while the decision was difficult, the Employee Recognition Committee voted and agreed to award Ms. Marjorie Camacho and Ms. Robyn Mobley, Nassau County's 2025 – 1st Quarter, Employees of the Quarter.

Margie Camacho – The Code Department has had staffing challenges recently, and Margie has stepped up without hesitation by not only completing her assigned duties, but has taken on duties of other positions as well. The Code Department has very strict requirements for noticing public hearings and she has been instrumental in ensuring everything is taken care of timely, while providing the most accurate data for the County Attorney's Office and the Special Magistrate. Margie has been key in keeping the department functioning through this challenging time. She has displayed Customer Care Standards, such as Knowing our business, Remembering Who We Work for, and Seeing the Big Picture.

Robyn Mobley – Ms. Mobley continuously goes above and beyond even in trying situations. Robyn maintains her compassion and composure when handling difficult situations and is always willing to make the extra effort in every task for not only the employees of Nassau County but all individuals whom she comes in contact with. Robyn is particularly excellent in communicating with new employees, answering many questions, patiently, quickly, truthfully, and kindly. By communicating with new hires professionally, she makes a positive first impression for the new employee from the beginning. Robyn brings an abundance of hard work, dedication, talent and experience to her position of Human Resource Specialist for Nassau County.

Margie and Robyn both maintain the utmost professionalism even in the midst of challenges that they may be faced with and have exemplified Nassau County's Customer Care Standards in going above and beyond and Nassau County is proud to recognize them.
